ALEXANDER WILLIAMSON. Police Intelligence, August 8th. Before E. W. Goodlake, Meg. The dock contained the usual assortment of agabonds yesterday morning, who were brought ip on various petty charges, gainbling; no onsses, no licenses, fighting, and the like. Two caught at the first offence were identified as very old offenders; every opportunity they can get when out of juil they are invariably found pening a game of chance in the streets: They vero fined $5 cach. Mr. A. F. Smith, of the firm of McEwen and Co., while sitting in his office on Monday mornng, had his attention attracted by a rustling, nd looking up observed a coolie who had been in their employ as a boatman in theact of running away, having just mutched a telescope valued at $25 or $30s from mode the raiting where f The thing was done so quickly that Mr Smith could hardly think the telescope could have been taken until he went round to the place where it hung and found it gone. He mmediately went to the street, but could see nothing of the prisoner in any direction. He mustered his boatmen and found the two prisoners missing; they came in shortly afterward brough the back way, and he had them taken in charge on suspicion. The prisoners stoutly lenied that they were in any way concerned in the disappearance of the telescope. They had been out to burchase some food. His Worship canarked that there was not a great deal of evidence against the prisoners as yet, and be would therefore remond the case to give an opportunity for the telescope to be found and ifther evidence collected against the prisoners. it was to be found
